New County Supervisors Institute

A three-session series designed to help newly elected Supervisors jump-start your term

So you've just been elected as County Supervisor. Now what? This series of three sessions is designed to help you hit the ground running.

The series examines the basics of county governance. Hear tips and tricks from experienced supervisors on establishing your office, roles and responsibilities, ten top questions to ask of staff, legal obligations and much more. The first session of this in-depth seminar is held just before the CSAC Annual Meeting in November and provides the unique opportunity to develop a network amongst new supervisors that will last through your career.

The course is open to all supervisors-elect in California.

Objectives

Upon completion, new supervisors will be able to:

- ◆ Describe roles, responsibilities and legal obligations of a county supervisor.
- ◆ Identify ten questions to ask the CAO/CEO and department directors.
- ◆ Understand the role of a supervisor, the Board and the executive in county governance and management.
- ◆ Appreciate the dynamics of Board interaction and the strategies to accomplish goals.
- ◆ Effectively approach the first 90 days in office.
- ◆ Build a lasting network of peers to consult with and share ideas.

Designed Specifically for the Needs of County Supervisors-Elect

The three sessions of the Institute provide a unique venue for new County Supervisors to meet their colleagues and learn important information, protocols and practices to help them better understand the requirements and environment of their new office. The Institute is designed to complement orientations offered by the county.

New Supervisors Class of 2014-15

Hands-On Learning

Interactive presentations and small group discussions highlight the Institute and provide participants opportunities for hands-on, policy-level discussions. Participants receive content-rich resources and the updated California County Supervisors Resource Guide.

Expert Faculty

The faculty is led by former Yolo Supervisor and CSAC President Mike McGowan, and CSAC Institute Dean and former Napa CEO Bill Chiat. Faculty include experienced Supervisors, County Administrators, Counsels, Clerks, and experts in the services and issues of California Counties. They bring practical experience in crafting policy and providing county services.
