CSAC Statement on Board of Director's Vote on 2012 Initiative for Constitutional Protections

(Sacramento) – Today the CSAC Board of Directors confirmed the organization's goal of securing constitutional protections for Counties in 2012 and voted to suspend pursuit of the initiative filed by CSAC and its public safety partners. The Board also decided that support of Governor's proposal would be discussed at a future board meeting, once more information, including title and summary on the Governor's proposal and information about other measures on the ballot is available.
